

B.C. Schools of Character Network

B.C. Schools of Character:

Have an established set of values for their school community.
 Include students, staff and parents in establishing or re-visiting their values.
 Strategically promote their values throughout the school.
 Develop ways to put their values into action in their everyday life.
 Intentionally use the language of character throughout the day.
 Involve members of their surrounding community in their character story.

School Name and District #:
Completed by:
Email:
Date Completed:

	1	2	3	4
Values: List the values you have chosen and indicate how they were chosen and who was involved (examples: staff, students, parents, community)
Promotion: Indicate where your values are promoted and how (examples: Halls, classrooms, logo, letterhead, handbook)
Practice: Indicate how your school community puts your values into practice (examples: assemblies, clubs, projects). Indicate how reflection plays a role in your practice.
Monitor: Indicate how you are measuring the impact of your progress (examples: surveys, rubrics, data)
Growth: Indicate how you are developing your staff (examples: guest speakers, new staff orientation) and what your plan is to maintain or increase participation

1= beginning

2=developing

3=accomplished

4=exemplary

Send to: BC.Character@gmail.com